Spartans Speak
By Tim Chang

First it was the flu epidemic, then came a rash of the German measles—now it's the terror of quarter finals. The tests this week will determine a large part of a student's grades, so they cannot be laughed off.
Many a Spartan is burning the midnight candle to make up for the studying that should have been done earlier.
Teri Shott was crowned Queen of the Cotton Ball. An interesting feature of this dance was the marriages performed for a cheap price—Tijuana style. Karen Cintz claimed that she alone married 50 couples.

Coming up this Friday is the stupendous One-Act Play Festival held annually in Long Beach. Here is a wonderful opportunity to witness some top-notch drama. The most auspicious thespians of South High are entering their finest one-act effort, "Ladies of the Map," directed by Joyce Neu. Also this Friday, the junior class is showing a thrilling surfing movie. Buy your tickets now and get a discount if you have a junior class card.
A new course, arts and humanities, is being offered next year. There will be three instructors—Joseph Hooten, Donald Craig, and Harold Pelster. The course will be concerned with art, literature, and music in relation to history and the people of the ages.
Sign up now, because the course will be open to only 30 aesthetically minded juniors and seniors.
Startling news of the week: Lee Pearce actually got a haircut.

King, Other Demos to Be Feted Sunday

Rep. Cecil R. King, chairman of California's Congressional Delegation, will be honored at the Democratic State Central Committee's annual Congressional Ball on Sunday in Los Angeles, Mrs. Carmen H. Warschaw announced this week.

King, the dean of California Congressmen, is the second ranking member of the House Ways and Means Committee and is co-author of the medical care for the aged law.
Sunday's affair will honor California's 23-member Democratic Congressional Delegation. It will be held at 7 p.m., April 17, in the Embassy Room of the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles.

The gala-dance will be "an evening of pure enjoyment," according to Mrs. Warschaw. "There will be no political speeches and no hard table," she said.
"We will have fine food and entertainment and the Congressmen—our honored guests—will be seated with their wives at tables throughout the room so that they can enjoy the evening along with the other guests." Singer Tony Martin will top the list of entertainers.

Governor Edmund G. Brown will be honorary chairman. Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh and Senate President pro Tempore Hugh Burns have been named honorary co-chairmen for the $100-a-plate event. Tickets and information are available at Democratic Headquarters, 417 S. Hill Street, Suite No. 321, Los Angeles. Telephone is MA 9-1121.

ENTERS HOSPITAL
Robert Miller, 40, of 407 E. Cloverbrook St., has been admitted as a private patient to Los Angeles Orthopaedic Hospital.

'Atonement' Set as Topic

Doctrine of Atonement" will be the subject at Christian Science church services this Sunday. Bible passages to be considered will focus on Jesus' parable of the prodigal son (Luke 15), and end with his statement, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me."
Related readings from the denominational textbook will include these lines: "Like our Master, we must depart from material sense into the spiritual sense of being. . . . This is having part in the atonement; this is the understanding, in which Jesus suffered and triumphed" ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy).
